COTTON WORKS

Three venues.
One BIG Party.

Christmas at Cotton Works

Good food, proper drinks, and a room that knows how to hold a crowd. From office parties to long-overdue catch-ups with old friends, we've got the space, the setting and the food to match.

Expect a menu built for the season, drinks that keep the night moving, and a space that works just as well for twelve as it does for a hundred and twelve. Bring the people worth seeing this year. We'll take care of everything else.
